OPPORTUNITIES FOR GROWTH AND SERVICE

Trinity Goes To The Movies

Blood Done Sign My Name, is a story about racial tensions and violence of the 1970's in North Carolina. Based upon a novel by Timothy Tyson, the son of a United Methodist Minister in the North Carolina Conference, the movie tells the story of the murder of an African American Vietnam veteran in Oxford, North Carolina that sparked a reaction that divided the small rural town and led to the rise of a prominent civil rights leader.

Habitat For Humanity

The Durham District Build Project for Habitat (Nance House) is well underway with plans for building the Nance House. Trinity has been asked to supply four laborers on assigned Saturdays during the month of March. The dates are Saturday, March 13, and March 20 from 12:45 to 4:00.

An additional Saturday is scheduled for June 5 from 8:45 to 3:30.

Please note all skill levels are needed. This is a good way to get on-the-job experience. Or you may be willing to provide assistance to the construction crews as a "runner" providing them with food, snacks or other needed items.

Anyone interested in being part of this project, please contact Jane Mickey at either 489-6907 or trailsnforest@mindspring.com; or Russell Odom at either 451-8603 or russellpodom@yahoo.com; or Carolyn Hunter at 460-1171.

Palm/Passion Sunday

The Heart Of The Cross

A Passion Play

Sunday, March 28 during the 11:00 am Service.

Created and performed by Olivia Woodford

Encounter the events of the Passion, from Passover to Resurrection through the eyes of women who loved Jesus. Mary Magdalene, Veronica, Mother Mary, and Martha discover renewed faith as they witness the events surrounding Jesus' death and resurrection. It is a play that brings to life the spirit of Easter, through the love, faith, and triumph of each of these women as they experience God.
